TELEGRAPHIC.

A FRIGHTFUL EXPLOSION.

Two Men Meet Instant Death.

AN INSANE MAN ATTEMPTS TO KILL HIS WIFE.

Mrs. Tom Maguire Insane...The People Recognized in Cal.

Special to the APPEAL

A Fatal Explosion.

Bangor, Maine, Oct. 11.—A special from Orono, the scene of a terrible explosion says Wm. Eddy and Richard Zine were killed outright. Walter Smith, Wm. Buchanan and four others were seriously injured.

A $300,000 Explosion.

Orono, Maine, Oct. 11.—The loss by a mill explosion today will be $300,000. Two men were killed and six injured. The mill was owned by the Bangor Pulp and Paper Co.

Tried to Kill His Wife.

San Jose, Oct. 11.—Dr. William Smith just arrived from Columbus, Georgia, went suddenly insane and tried to kill his wife on the main street.

Too Many to Keep Out.

Sacramento, Oct. 11.—Secretary of State Waite this afternoon decided to place the People's party electors on the State ticket. The matter has been under contest for some time.

Markham Goes Hence.

Sacramento, Oct. 11.—Governor Markham and staff leave tomorrow in two special cars for Chicago to attend the opening ceremonies of the World's Fair.

Tom Maguire's Wife Insane.

New York, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Tom Maguire, wife of the famous Pacific Coast theatrical manager, has been declared insane and committed to the asylum.

When Johnnie Harrington was nominated for Surveyor-General of this county, he sent to Paris for two Azimuth compasses. He has tried them and they work to perfection. They show the rope at the Diablo hoisting works to hang exactly perpendicular, the water in the reservoir to be level, and Senator Pogonip's palace to be north and by east, three inches east of the residence of Ah Flow, the tea merchant's daughter.—Choloride Belt.

Benton's Liniment.

Which has been used in Carson for over twenty-five years, has saved many an ache and pain to those who know it. It is really intended for horses but works with the same magical effect on the human. It is a powerful remedy and for rheumatism is the king of the world. Aches knocked out in short order. No horseman should be without a bottle.

Benton's Liniment for sale at all drug stores.

PUBLIC SPEAKING!

Gen. Paul Vanderhoort,

Of Omaha, Nebraska, and ex-Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, will address the people upon the political issue of the campaign under the auspices of the Silver party of Nevada as follows:

Virginia.....Oct. 10
Carson.....Oct. 11
Reno.....Oct. 12
Winnemucca.....Oct. 13
Elko.....Oct. 14

The Silver Leagues in the several places will please make the necessary arrangements for the meeting.

Geo. S. NIXON, Chairman,
H. P. FLANNERY, Secretary.

The Capital Lodging House has been resingled, repainted and renovated, making it especially desirable for lodgers. The bar is stocked with nothing but first-class goods. Opposite South front of Capitol building. Mrs. Jennie Forrest, proprietress.

Gibraltar.

This famous stallion will stand for the season at the ranch of John Sweeney near Carson City. Gibraltar is the sire of Homestake whose record two years ago was 2:14 1/2.

A ROUSING MEETING.

General Vandervoort Talks for Nevada.

HE SCORES THE ADMINISTRATION AND BLISTERS THE TRAITORS.

An Audience of Silverites Cheer Him to the Echo.

Last night was a great event for Ormsby. It was the tip of the scale which turns the county over to the Silver party in the Fall elections and lifts it out of the doubtful column.

At the regular hour the great bonfires lit the street, the band filled the air with music and the crowd began to gather at the Opera House. In a little while there was not an inch of standing room left.

People came from Empire, Dayton, Virginia and Reno to hear the great orator and hundreds were turned away.

A transparency was shown on the street bearing the inscription:

"We know no party, but silver."
"We demand the free coinage of silver."

The transparency was loudly cheered. The Reno people were led by a band and carried torches.

Dr. Fox presided over the meeting and introduced the speaker in a few happy remarks.

Dr. Guinan called the meeting to order, and S. P. Davis was chosen Secretary.

The following were the Vice-Presidents:

Messrs. Leete, Wall, Burlingame, Rae, Douglas, W. H. Chedie, Calbraith, Herriek, Cross, Reynolds, Joe Cowing, Olcovich, Aube, P. H. Petersen, J. E. Jones, J. G. Ellis, Kinney, D. G. Kitzmeyer, McGowan, Walter, Henderson, Logan, Muller, Folsom, Stone, G. R. Davis, Joe Raycraft, Simpson, Cook, H. Harris, L. Fish, Ryland, C. A. Norcross, Currier, Beck, Marshal, James.

THE GENERAL'S SPEECH.

The speaker was greeted with a storm of applause and after he got the attention of the audience they soon began to realize that they had before them one of the most entertaining speakers that had ever raised the echoes in the Opera House.

As he began speaking he mentioned the name of Stewart, the silver champion, and how the people of his State, Nebraska, revered him. Here some one called out: "Hurrah for Bartine."

The speaker replied: "We never heard of Bartine in Nebraska," and there was such a storm of applause that it took several minutes to restore order.

He said in the South a vote for Weaver was considered a vote for Harrison; in the West it was for Cleveland. But he contended that a vote for Weaver wherever cast entailed a question of prosperity or poverty. This campaign is one of education. He had visited Montana, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, Kansas and Nebraska, and in all those States the camp fires of the People's party were seen on every hill.

He did not come he said, to tell the people about the currency question as Senator Stewart, the leading financier of the country had already done so.

He made a stirring and eloquent appeal to the people of the State to cast off the shackles of party and strike a blow for the prosperity of Nevada. Unless they fought for their own interests no one else would do so.

It was a death struggle between the powers of Wall Street and the toiling miner, and the time had come when it was war or the stagnation of poverty.

It is impossible to reproduce the speech in full. It drew forth cheers and applause from his audience, and was interspersed numerously with good stories, told in an inimitable way.

The people contended that were Abraham Lincoln alive today he would belong to the People's party, or stultify all the utterances of his life. He eulogized the leaders of the Republican party in former years, who were not owned by the gold bugs. He denounced John Sherman—one of the richest and most avaricious leaders of the present Administration—as a living vampire, who is helping to rivet tighter the chains on the working classes, and delivered a glowing eulogy on Stewart.

He paid his compliments to Harrison in a style that left no doubt of his attitude with the man now fighting against the interests of Nevada, and also gave the editor of the Enterprise a few passing compliments that were greatly enjoyed by the crowd.

The speaker chained the attention of his large audience and the Glee Club of Reno rendered some of their excellent music.

A SHORT TALK BY STEWART.

Stewart being called for spoke about fifteen minutes and was interrupted by frequent cheering. He showed how the Republican party of Nevada had set its pegs for silver and then departed from its original plan, led by a crowd of cowardly bolters who would never be heard of after November 8th. The Glee Club closed the meeting with some local songs, which were loudly encouraged.

The meeting then gave three cheers for Vandervoort, Stewart and Silver.

The meeting was a tremendous success, and many men who had been wavering were in line with silver after the meeting, and expressed themselves as ready to vote the silver ticket straight in November, county, State and National.

It was generally expressed that the meeting took Ormsby out of the doubtful column.

THE BARREL ARRIVES.

Discussion Already Manifest Among the Faithful.

The inside facts relative to the recent meeting of the Republican State Central Committee are out.

It was not at all harmonious, and the presence of $15,000 brought from the East by Strother, is what is causing all the trouble.

Some time ago, when the question of a sack from Wall Street was not so set in the minds of the Republican bolters as now, they met and elected Tremmer Coffin as Treasurer. When the sack arrived there was a meeting called at once to discuss "Ways and Means."

"Who is Treasurer of this Committee?" asked Senator Foley.

There was a dead silence.

"Wasn't Coffin elected Treasurer?" said a voice full of sorrow and apprehension.

"Was I?" said Coffin in the most surprised tones. "If I was I had forgotten all about it."

The Secretary hunted up the records and found that the election of Coffin as Treasurer was indeed true.

Coffin was so surprised to learn that he was Treasurer that he went over and looked at the record to see if there wasn't some mistake.

"Yes, that's so," he said; "I had the impression I was the Secretary."

Those who saw his acting say that it was the smoothest piece of work ever seen off the stage.

Henry Irving, the great London delineator of naturalness in acting, could have taken points from him.

There was a long and painful silence when the facts came out, and then the man who nominated Coffin remembered that it was at his earnest solicitation.

The sack had to be turned over to him and then the meeting adjourned.

The members wore long faces on the street that night.

"It's no use, we're dished," said one of the mourners.

Indeed they are. Mr. Coffin has long enjoyed the reputation of a man who likes to act as the bull dog of the sack. He will guard it faithfully during the campaign, and he has such a conscientious regard for the law against bribery that he would rather build a house with the money than see even one voter corrupted.

How to get that sack out among the masses is the problem which is perplexing the wisest heads of the Committee.

Commercial Lunch.

There will be served during the Summer a regular commercial lunch at Anderson's lunch counter in Weiland's saloon. It will be a hot lunch with soup, beer, tea, coffee or milk, for 25 cents. It is proposed to make this the best lunch in the city for the money, and will run from 12 to 2 o'clock.

A. Livingston now practically controls the wholesale liquor trade of the city. He is continually adding to his stock and sells only standard brands. He is also introducing some excellent California wines to the people of Carson, as well as foreign and domestic cigars of the finest quality. Drop in and inspect his stock.

CIRCULATION.

A Short Chat With Our Contemporaries.

The expose of the Call's fraudulent circulation has been a heavy blow to that journal. It shows that it has been for years imposing on the public by lying affidavits and any business man who has patronized its columns could recover damages.

In our own section of the country, the disposition to claim large circulations on the part of our contemporaries, is always cropping out. The News claims the largest circulation in Ormsby county, so does the Tribune.

The Tribune claims in the Rowells Newspaper Reporter as having a much larger circulation than the APPEAL; about double.

This is because the APPEAL tells the truth about its circulation and the Tribune does not.

The APPEAL is frequently asked by advertisers to state its circulation. In an instance of this kind we simply invite the party asking the question into the press room where he can see the press running as it works off the edition. None of our contemporaries are willing to submit to this test.

If you think they will just try them. We will state in conclusion that while our circulation at the present time is about 30 per cent more than it was six months ago, it is still not large. The APPEAL never had a large circulation and we have never claimed it.

It is a paper however, universally read and quoted. Numbers of people—who ought to know better—have a habit of borrowing it from their neighbors and reading it. In this way one man pays for the paper and nine other people get the benefit of it.

About ten persons read every copy printed. This is a trifle rough on the publisher but it is a splendid thing for the advertiser.

The State Hatchery.

Fish Commissioner Mills is having the State Fish Hatchery repaired throughout and getting it in shape for the fall take of spawn. The close of this season's work was the end of a most successful year, inasmuch as young trout had been successfully planted in almost inaccessible water throughout the eastern part of the State. California anglers are rapidly getting onto the fact that Nevada can raise the hardiest and gamest brook trout on earth.

Free Train This Evening.

There will be a free train this evening to Reno, the occasion being the silver meeting at the riverside town. There will be a crowd from the Comstock, Dayton and Empire, and the proposition is to make it the biggest silver gathering yet held in the State. General Vandervoort will be the principal speaker.

Mr. Coffin has the following financial information in last night's Tribune:

The State Central Committee has not received a 10-cent piece from the National Committee.

From the above it would seem that the Committee has decided that the fight is hopeless, and that it is only wasting money to use it. A hard winter is coming on, and it had better be given to poor but deserving members of the Committee.

A dispatch from New York congratulating Nevada Republicans on the way they have made public asses of themselves has made the Committee a worse laughing stock than ever.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen—From the Holstein ranch, a sorrel mare four years old, with white strip on face running off to left side. She has no brand, but the right fore knee is rather large. The finder, or anyone giving information leading to her recovery, will be liberally rewarded by addressing Mrs. S. E. Roberts, care of this office. o3

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

If your watch is out of order in any way you can get it repaired at Golden's by skilled workmen from the best institutions in Europe. The work turned out in jewelry repairing is always finished in the best style and the assortment of goods has no equal anywhere in Nevada. j4tf.

Stewart, the "fottygraffer," is doing the biggest business ever done in his line in this city. He turns out nothing but first class work. *
